AWSCPA FIRM LEADERSHIP - LEAD BY EXAMPLE AWARD ANNOUNCED

DAYTON, OHIO -- The American Woman's Society of Certified Public Accountants (AWSCPA) announced that it has presented its Firm Leadership - Lead By Example Award to PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) at its Women's Accounting & Leadership Conference (WALC) in Houston, Texas on June 6, 2013.

PwC received this recognition from Amy Knowles-Jones, AWSCPA President, to recognize a business that not only has a strong women's program in place, but also strong women in leadership positions to show others that it can be done.

PwC has a continuing commitment to developing superior women's leadership programs within the firm. From being a Catalyst Award Winner to Working Mother's 100 Best Companies, they've shown that they take women's issues seriously. They focus on fostering a diverse culture within PwC, both for those looking to step back to plan a family and more importantly, those looking to get back into the workforce after raising a family. Among those are programs such as Just In Case, Mentor Moms, and the Women's Forum for the Economy and Society.

AWSCPA, organized in 1933, is the only national organization committed to the development and advancement of women CPAs in the accounting profession. For its members, AWSCPA provides:

- Resources and support for professional and personal development
- Opportunities for leadership participation, networking and mentoring
- Visibility and recognition for the organization and its members
- Leadership in addressing the concerns of women in the accounting profession

If you would like additional information about AWSCPA, visit the website at www.awscpa.org or contact the National Office at 800.AWSCPA1.
